LESSON:

In April 2020's General Conference President Russell M Nelson's opening remarks said:

"Future trials could result from an accident, a natural disaster, or an unexpected personal heartache. How can we endure such trials? The Lord has told us that "if ye are prepared ye shall not fear."<sup>1</sup> Of course, we can store our own reserves of food, water, and savings. But equally crucial is our need to fill our personal spiritual storehouses with faith, truth, and testimony."

What would a personal spiritual storehouse look like?

The prophet told us it would be filled with faith, truth and testimony.

There are basic choices that we can chose to do each day to build our own personal storehouses.

Here are some stones to build our house. Each stone has a mixed-up word with things that help us fill up our spiritual storehouse.

HOW TO PLAY THE GAME:

Have each person pick a word they can unscramble. Say what it is. Turn over the stone and read out the quote. Then roll the dice to see how to do the song that goes with it.

After the storehouse is built, discuss how to these are all things we have to choose to do personally.

Bear testimony.

Song: 116 Hymn

"I promise that as you diligently work to remodel your home into a center of gospel learning, over time your Sabbath days will truly be a delight. Your children will be excited to learn and to live the Saviour's teachings and the influence of the adversary in your life and in your homes will decrease. Changes in your family will be dramatic and sustaining." – Russell M Nelson.
